PARK MANOR, LTD. RIGHTS OF RESIDENTS IN WISCONSIN NURSING FACILITIES

Attachment C – Continued

11. TRANSFERS AND DISCHARGES

Advance Notice and Appeals of Transfers or Discharges

You are entitled to and shall receive advance written notice (in most cases 30 days) of any proposed transfer or discharge that you, your resident representative, or your legal representative have not requested. The notice shall specify the reason for the transfer, the proposed date for transfer, and the proposed location of the transfer. It shall also identify your right to object to and file an appeal of the transfer with the Wisconsin state agency in charge of assuring that your rights as a nursing home resident have not been violated.

The notice will provide you the name, address and telephone number of advocacy groups who can assist you with exercising your appeal rights.

Room Transfers Within the Facility

You will not be transferred between rooms or beds within the facility unless (1) you consent, (2) the move is required for medical reasons, or (3) when necessary for your welfare or for the welfare of other residents. Prior to any proposed transfer, the facility will provide you, your resident representative, or any other person you designate with written notice, the reason for the change, before your room or roommate in the facility is changed. You may refuse a transfer to another room within the facility, if the purpose of the transfer is to obtain Medicare coverage for your care. Your refusal will not affect your continued eligibility for Medicare benefits.

Notice of Bedhold Policy and Return

If you are on leave or temporarily discharged (such as to a hospital for surgery or treatment) and have expressed a desire to return to the facility, you will not be denied readmission. If the facility determines that you were transferred with an expectation of returning to the facility and cannot return, the facility will comply with all requirements applicable to discharges.

February Trivia

February is the only month that can pass without a full moon, a rare and fascinating occurrence that doesn't happen in any other month.

The month gets its name from "Februa," an ancient Roman celebration focused on reflection, renewal, and fresh beginnings.

In the early days of the Roman calendar, February was the last month of the year, making it a time to pause and prepare for what lay ahead.

Because of its shorter length, February always starts on the same day of the week as March in common (non-leap) years.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 18)

Aquarians are shy & quiet deep thinkers who love helping others.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 120)

Pisces are friendly and selfless. They are always willing to help others

FRIENDS

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Friends are like melons; shall I tell you why?

To find one good, you must a hundred try.

And when you find one good one of the lot,

You find it pays you well for all you've got.

Friends are like books; should you but own a few,

You'll find them far more useful than the true.

Choose carefully, for life is short indeed,

And time demands the very best we need.

A faithful friend is comfort in the day,

A guiding light when skies are dull and gray.

Through years that pass and changes yet unknown,

True friends remind us we're not alone.

LAUGHING MATTERS

ST. PETER & THE PEARLY GATES

A woman died and found herself standing outside the Pearly Gates, being greeted by St. Peter.

She asked him, "Oh, is this place what I really think it is? It's so beautiful. Did I really make it to heaven?"

To which St. Peter replied, "Yes, my dear, these are the Gates to Heaven. But you must do one more thing before you can enter."

The woman was very excited and asked St. Peter what she must do to pass through the gates.

"Spell a word," St. Peter replied.

"What word?" she asked.

"Any word," answered St. Peter. "It's your choice."

The woman promptly replied, "Then the word I will spell is love. L-O-V-E."

St. Peter congratulated her on her good fortune to have made it to Heaven and asked her if she would mind taking his place at the gates for a few minutes while he took a break.

"I'd be honored," she said, "but what should I do if someone comes while you are gone?" St. Peter reassured her and instructed the woman simply have any newcomers to the Pearly Gates spell a word as she had done. So the woman is left sitting in St. Peter's chair and watching the beautiful angels soaring around her, when low and behold, a man approaches the gates, and she realizes it is her husband.

"What happened?" She cried, "Why are you here?"

Her husband stared at her for a moment, then said, "I was so upset when I left your funeral, I was in an accident. And now I am here? Did I really make it to Heaven?" To which the woman replied, "Not yet. You must spell a word first."

"What word?" he asked.

The woman responded, "Czechoslovakia"
