Remember When? – September Memories

Remember When...

-  School started right after Labor Day, and children carried metal lunch boxes and thermoses?
-  Families gathered around the TV to watch programs like The Ed Sullivan Show, Bonanza, and The Lawrence Welk Show?
-  A first-class postage stamp cost only a few cents, and handwritten letters were a regular way to stay in touch?
-  Many families took Sunday drives to see the fall colors beginning to appear across Wisconsin?
-  Popular songs on the radio included hits from Frank Sinatra, Patsy Cline, Elvis Presley, and The Beatles?
-  September was harvest time, and corn, potatoes, and apples were being gathered from farms throughout Northern Wisconsin?
-  It was time to pull sweaters out of the closet and prepare for cooler mornings and evenings?
-  Friday night football games brought communities together to cheer for local teams?

Did You Know?

-  September is named after the Latin word septem, meaning "seven." It was the seventh month in the ancient Roman calendar.
-  Wisconsin is one of the nation's leading cranberry producers, with harvest season beginning in September.
-  The Harvest Moon is the full moon closest to the first day of autumn.
-  Squirrels become especially busy in September as they gather food for winter.

"Autumn carries more gold in its pocket than all the other seasons." — Jim Bishop

Let's Talk About It!

What was your favorite school memory?

Did your family go apple picking or canning in the fall?

What signs told you that autumn was arriving in Northern Wisconsin?

September Smiles: Park Manor Edition

The Great Flannel Forecast

A resident looked out of the window one cool September morning and announced, "I know winter is coming."

The nurse asked, "Did you see it on the weather report?"

"No," the resident replied. "I saw three people wearing flannel before breakfast. That's all the forecast I need in Park Falls!"

The Missing Apple Pie Mystery

The activities director brought an apple pie to a gathering and left it in the dining room.

When she returned, one piece was missing.

"Who took the pie?" she asked.

A resident smiled and said, "I think we should focus on solutions, not blame."

"Such as?"

"Cut the rest of the pie before any more evidence disappears."

Up North Directions

A visitor asked a resident, "How far is it to town?"

The resident answered, "Well in summer it's about fifteen minutes. In winter it's twenty-five minutes. And if you get stuck behind someone looking for deer, it could be all afternoon."

September Signs You're in Northern Wisconsin

- You own more flannel than dress clothes.
- Someone mentions ice fishing before Halloween.
- The words "just a little chilly" can mean 45 degrees.
- A trip to see the fall colors somehow includes a stop for pie.
- Everyone knows the best fishing spot, but nobody will tell you where it is.

A Little September Smile

As the leaves begin to change and the air turns crisp, remember: every season brings new memories, new laughs, and new reasons to enjoy time spent with friends.
